We don't believe in baby books. We think parenting is time-consuming and guilt filled enough without having the added pressure of filling up pages of weekly milestones. So this is ONE book, 18 years, 20 minutes of you and your dearests' time once a year and hey presto! On their 18th Birthday, you can hand them their life history, makes a perfect birth/christening/1st birthday present. With room for photos, comments, plus space to jot down milestones.
