Here at ZZ Designs we don't just make cards we manufacture happiness. We believe good designs and consider everything from the welfare of the factory worker, to the interest of the retailer, the pocket power of the purchaser and the joy to the recipient. We design the complete package using the best quality material and the cards speak for themselves. We work with very small margins to increase sales volumes so that more people can afford to buy them.

Thanks to laser cutting technology Roger la Borde is privileged to bring the innovative and exciting work of Rob Ryan to mantelpieces everywhere. Ryan's incredible hand-made paper cut-outs with their unique combination of skill, imagery and quirky poetic words have caught the eye of international design but his feet are firmly planted in the world of gift. This is a unique opportunity to recognise an emerging international design superstar who hails from the traditional preserve of the British Gift industry.
