COSTÈLLO + HELLERSTEIN
CHOCOLATE TRUFFLES

My passion for food started at an early age. As a young boy I would help in my mother's delicatessen and I continued to gain experience in restaurants before graduating as a pastry chef at the renowned French cookery school, Le Cordon Bleu. I went on to work in a Michelin star restaurant in London where I specialised in breads, cakes and petit fours.

I started my company Costèllo + Hellerstein to allow everyone to experience the taste of fine dining. My home is in the beautiful Cotswolds, England, where I am known as The Artisan Baker - a name taken from the title of my book where I share the secrets of my recipes.

All Costèllo + Hellerstein truffles are handcrafted with the finest ingredients.

Enjoy, Ori Hellerstein
