

Birthday in a box

If friends or family have a birthday coming up, it has never been more important to remind them how much you care. At Craft and Crumb, we love celebrations of all sorts which is why we have launched our Birthday in a box, the perfect doormat surprise.

We believe that a birthday is only really a birthday with these 3 essentials...Cake, Candles, balloons! With our new letterbox sized Birthday in a box, we have included all 3 and so much more ready to gift to your favourite people on their special day. You even have the option to include a personal note to make their day even more magical.
